

CURRICULUM VITAE
Col. Luís VILLAR COLOMA
(very) Brief (Eng.)

As an Air Force Pilot, Colonel VILLAR has extensive experience in Air Missions and in the Management of Aeronautical Programs both nationally and internationally. In 2000 he graduated from the Air Command and Staff College (USA).

He began his operational life as Instructor at the Fighter Pilot School until his assignment as Captain to the 12th Wing equipped with EF-18 Hornet.

As Major, he was appointed Commander of the 151th Squadron. On his operational life he has participated in advanced and complex exercises as Red Flag, NOMAD or Dragon Hammer and also in real operations in the Balkans, Afghanistan and Libya.

He was assigned as a member of the Eurofighter Program in 2003. Since then, he has worked also in other Defense Programs, like the F-18 Mid Life Upgrade, Iris-T and Meteor.

Since August 2021 he has been assigned to the Directorate-General of Armament (DGAM), where he is in charge of the New Generation Weapons System (NGWS / FCAS) National-Office.